

Dear Customer,

Rolegás, your propane gas supplier, would like to inform you about the price update, which will take effect starting on June 10, 2026.

Due to the instability and rising prices of propane gas in international markets, Rolegás has once again been forced to adjust its prices in accordance with the conditions observed, in order to ensure the sustainability and quality of the service provided.

Accordingly, the prices will be applied in accordance with the following price table:
